Portable Satellite

Information About the Service

ANT Portable Satellite is a service which uses the Optus Geostationary Satellite Network to deliver internet connection to you as you travel, work or live in remote parts of Australia.

Mandatory Requirements and Availability

Once equipment is received, it should be set up and tested prior to being taken to a remote location for use, as it is difficult to provide support where there are limited communications.

This service is not dependent on any bundling of services.

ANT's portable satellite will give you broadband internet no matter where you are as long as you have a clear view of the Northern sky.

ANT's portable satellite can only be connected using ANT's supplied or approved equipment. See application form for current cost of equipment.

Satellite Travellers' Plans are only available to individuals for private use.

Small Business Plans are for a maximum of 4 computers connected concurrently

Commercial Plans are for 5 or more computers connected concurrently.

Minimum Term

Casual Connection - One month

Payment In Advance - 6 months

Inclusion, exclusions and important conditions, limitations, restrictions or qualifications.

ANT supplies: Satellite dish, tripod, ODU, modem, wireless router, cabling, digital inclinometer, compass and satellite meter. Set up instructions are also supplied with a demonstration DVD. The electronics are provided in a foam lined aluminium attaché case. See application for current pricing. ANT also supplied Satellite finder software to allow for easy set up.

Plans are based on the Optus peak speed of your chosen plan. Speed for customers will be dependent on location, signal strength, volume of traffic through the network, your equipment, software and download source.

ANT Anytime Plan data may be used at any time of the day you wish. At ANT there is none of the data restrictive "peak" or "off-peak" or "bonus data" time restrictions.

Data usage is counted in both directions so if you download 10GB of data and upload 10GB of data that is counted as 20GB. Data usage is measured on a 28 day rolling cycle.

You can change your plan up or down at any time. If you upgrade your plan a pro rata adjustment will be made at your next billing cycle.
